MCLEAN COUNTY: LIVERMORE BRIDGE CROSSES COUNTIES

The Livermore Bridge might be a one-of-a-kind. It begins in one county (McLean), spans two rivers (Green and Rough) and crosses another county (Ohio) only to end in its county of origin (McLean). The Works Progress Administration built the bridge, which was dedicated on Nov. 12, 1940. Its largest span is about 320 feet long and it has a total length of 1,643.6 feet.
